33 34	1. The Residential Property Disclosure Act (G.S. 47E)("Disclosure Act") requires owners of residential real estate (single family homes, individual condominiums, townhouses, and the like, and buildings with up to
35	four dwelling units) to furnish buyers a Residential Property and Owners' Association Disclosure Statement
36	("Disclosure Statement"). This form is the only one approved for this purpose. A disclosure statement must
37	be furnished in connection with the sale, exchange, option, and sale under a lease with option to purchase
38	where the tenant does not occupy or intend to occupy the dwelling. A disclosure statement is not required for
39	some transactions, including the first sale of a dwelling which has never been inhabited and transactions of
40	residential property made pursuant to a lease with option to purchase where the lessee occupies or intends to
41	occupy the dwelling. For a complete list of exemptions, see G.S. 47E 2.

5	a.	If you check "Yes" for any question, you must explain your answer and either describe any problem or attach
6		a report from an attorney, engineer, contractor, pest control operator or other expert or public agency
7		describing it. If you attach a report, you will not be liable for any inaccurate or incomplete information
8		contained in it so long as you were not grossly negligent in obtaining or transmitting the information.
9
10	b. —	If you check "No," you are stating that you have no actual knowledge of any problem. If you check "No" and
11		you know there is a problem, you may be liable for making an intentional misstatement.

16	d.	If you check "Yes" or "No" and something happens to the property to make your Disclosure Statement
17		incorrect or inaccurate (for example, the roof begins to leak), you must promptly give the buyer a corrected
18		Disclosure Statement or correct the problem.
19		•
20	3.	If you are assisted in the sale of your property by a licensed real estate broker, you are still responsible for
21		completing and delivering the Disclosure Statement to the buyers; and the broker must disclose any material
22		facts about your property which he or she knows or reasonably should know, regardless of your responses on
23		the Statement.
24
25	4.	You must give the completed Disclosure Statement to the buyer no later than the time the buyer makes an
26		offer to purchase your property. If you do not, the buyer can, under certain conditions, cancel any resulting
27		contract (See "Note to Buyers" below). You should give the buyer a copy of the Disclosure Statement
28		containing your signature and keep a copy signed by the buyer for your records.

Note to Buyers

If the owner does not give you a Residential Property and Owners' Association Disclosure Statement by the time you make your offer to purchase the property, you may under certain conditions cancel any resulting contract without penalty to you as the buyer. To cancel the contract, you must personally deliver or mail written notice of your decision to cancel to the owner or the owner's agent within three calendar days following your receipt of the Disclosure Statement, or three calendar days following the date of the contract, whichever occurs first. However, in no event does the Disclosure Act permit you to cancel a contract after settlement of the transaction or (in the case of a sale or exchange) after you have occupied the property, whichever occurs first.

5. In the space below, type or print in ink the address of the property (sufficient to identify it) and your name.
